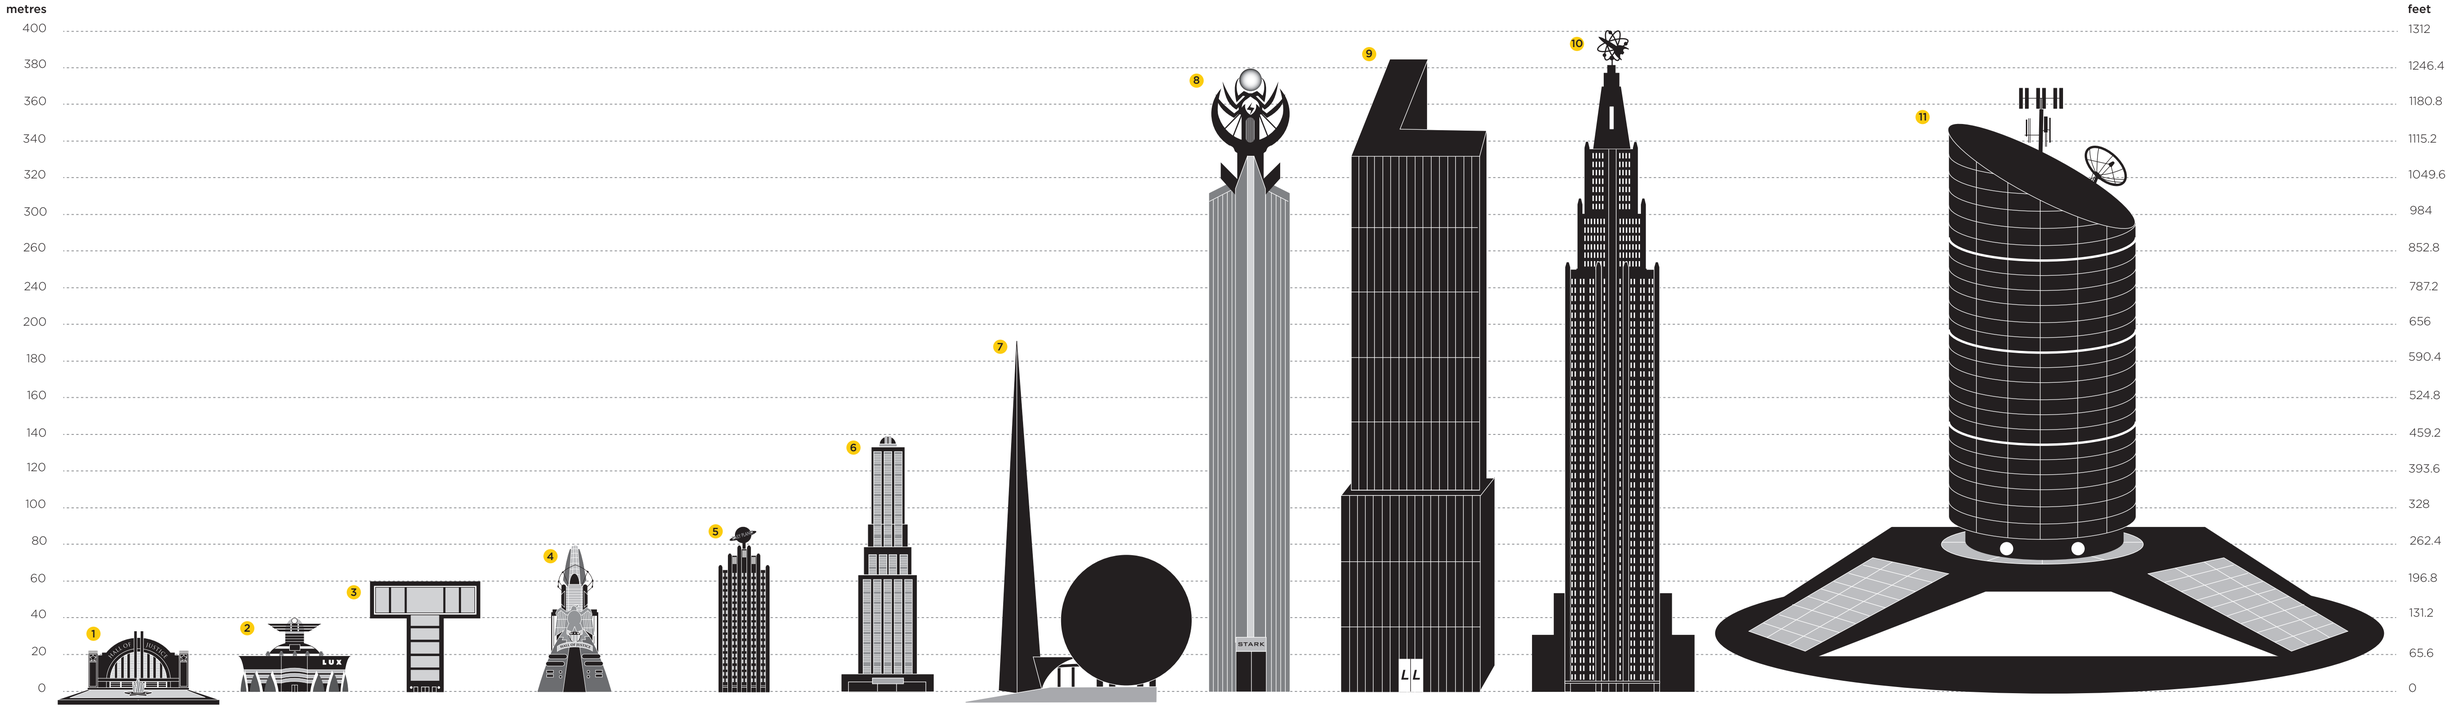
URBAN ARCHITECTURE IN COMIC BOOKS | WORLDCOMICBOOKREVIEW.COM

Infographic created by Cave Design © 2015. W: cavedesign.com.au



1. Hall of Justice
Headquarters of the Super-Friends
Location: Metropolis
Height: 32 metres (104.9 feet)
DC Comics
First appearance: 1973

2. Lux Piano Bar
Former residence of Lucifer
Location: Los Angeles
Height: 40 metres (131.2 feet)*
(*Subject to Lucifer's will)
Vertigo Comic
First appearance: 1996

3. Titans Tower
Original headquarters of the New Teen Titans
Location: New York
Height: 60 metres (196.8 feet)
DC Comics
First appearance: 1980

4. Grand Hall of Justice
Residence of Judge Dredd
Location: Mega-City One
Height: 80 metres (262.4 feet)
2000 AD Comics
First appearance: 1983

5. Daily Planet Building
Employer of Clark Kent (Superman)
Location: Metropolis
Height: 88 metres (288.6 feet)
DC Comics
First appearance: 1940

6. Baxter Building
Headquarters and residence of
Fantastic Four
Location: New York
Height: 140 metres (459.2 feet)
Marvel Comics
First appearance: 1962

7. Perisphere
Headquarters of All-Star Squadron
Location: New York
Height: 190 metres (623.2 feet)
DC Comics
First appearance: 1981

8. Stark Tower Complex
(main tower with Sentinel's Watchtower)
Headquarters of Avengers and
Iron Man's Residence
Location: New York
Height: 380 metres (1246.4 feet)
Marvel Comics
First appearance: 2005

9. LexCorp Building
Corporate offices of Lex Luthor
Location: Metropolis
Height: 384 metres (1259.5 feet)
DC Comics
First appearance: 1987

10. Astrobank Tower
Landmark of Astro-City
Location: Astro-City
Height: 400 metres (1312 feet)
Homage/Vertigo Comics
First appearance: 1995

11. Triskelion
Headquarters of the Ultimates
Location: Washington DC
Height: 330 metres (1082.4 feet)
Marvel Comics
First appearance: 2002